CONDITION OF BEQUEST.

The Winchester Library Association, in the spring of 1859, offered their Library, then consisting of one thousand volumes, to the town, as a nucleus of a Public Town Library, upon the following conditions, namely: —

1. That the town shall establish and maintain it as a Public Town Library, appropriating at once $200 for its establishment and maintenance the current year.

2. The town shall annually appropriate, for the increase and maintenance of said Library, not less than one hundred dollars.

3. The town shall keep the Library in good order and repair, well insured, in some suitable room, in charge of a competent Librarian, under such regulations as the Trustees of said Library shall from time to time establish.

4. The town shall, at the town meeting in which the Library is accepted, choose by ballot three Trustees, — one for three years, one for two years, and one for one year; and shall at any annual town meeting thereafter in March, choose by ballot one Trustee for three years, and shall fill all casual vacancies in like manner. Said Trustees shall establish suitable rules for their own proceedings, and for the government, safety, and good condition of the Library; cause to be printed a sufficient number of Catalogues to supply every voter in town with a copy; appoint from time to time a Librarian; fix the location of the Library; select and purchase the books to be added thereto, and generally have and exercise all the powers of the town in regard to the management of the Library; provided, that the town may, at any town meeting lawfully called for that purpose, establish, by direct vote of the inhabitants, such Library regulations as it may deem desirable. Said Trustees shall also annually make a full report in writing of their doings, and of the condition of the Library, to the town.

5. The town shall continue to be the owner of said Library so long as the foregoing conditions are complied with, and, upon failure to fulfil the said conditions, it shall revert to the Association.

The town accepted the offer of the Association, March 29th, 1859, and the Library is now the property of the town, for the use and benefit of all the citizens.

BY-LAWS.

1. Every citizen of Winchester, resident therein, and of the age of twenty-one years, capable of contracting in law, shall have the right to take books from the Library, on signing these By-laws and conforming thereto.

2. Each member of the family of said citizen, above the age of fourteen years, shall also have said right, conformably to these Rules and By-laws, if the father, brother, guardian, or other friend of said person, shall, by signing these By-laws, become responsible for said person.

3. Any resident of Winchester, not a legal citizen of said town, may have the use of the Library, by depositing with the Librarian the value of the book he takes, or by procuring some citizen of said town, satisfactory to the Trustees of the Library, to become responsible for his observance of these By-laws. And in case a deposit of money is made with the Librarian, said deposit shall be returned by the Librarian whenever said person ceases to use the Library, first deducting all that may be due for fines, assessments, and damages.

4. The Trustees of the Library may grant the use of the Library to any one, under special circumstances, when they shall see fit.

5. Every person authorized to use the Library may take therefrom one book at a time, and keep the same not exceeding two weeks.

6. Persons detaining any volume longer than these regulations permit shall pay to the Librarian six cents for every week the same shall be so detained, — a fraction of a week being reckoned as a week. And in case any such person shall retain said book more than four weeks, the privilege of himself, or herself, and of any one for whom he or she is responsible, of using the Library, shall cease, until said book is returned and all fines are paid.

7. Any person damaging a book shall pay therefor such sum as shall be assessed by the Trustees of the Library; and until such payment is made, his or her privilege, and the privilege of all for whom he or she is responsible, shall cease.

8. If a book be lost, defaced, or injured, it shall be replaced, or its value shall be paid in money. If it be one of a set, the person liable shall either pay for the whole set, and receive the odd volumes, or he shall pay the cost of replacing the volume which is lost, defaced, or injured; and the right of him or her, and of those for whomhe or she is responsible, to use the Library shall cease until such payment is made. Any person keeping a book from the Library more than six weeks may, at the election of the Trustees, be deemed to have lost the same, and shall be responsible for the value thereof, as if the same were actually lost.

9. It shall be the duty of the Librarian to keep charge of the Library; to see that the books are properly charged to the person receiving the same, before delivery; to collect all the damages assessed on books; to keep an account of and collect all fines and penalties for lost books; to see that the books are kept properly covered, numbered, and labelled, and to deliver to each person entitled to the use of the Library, a copy of these By-laws, a Catalogue, and a proper Card for the obtaining and exchange of books. He shall also have the right to dismiss and eject from the Library room any and all persons guilty of misconduct or improper behavior therein. And, generally, to do and perform under the direction of the Trustees of the Library, all duties ordinarily those of a Librarian. It shall also be his duty to make an annual examination of the Library, prior to the annual meeting of the town in March of each year, and report the same to the Trustees of the Library.

10. All books shall be returned to the Library two weeks prior to the annual meeting in March, and no book shall be taken from the Library during said time.

11. The Library will be kept open every Wednesday from 3 o'clock, P. M., till 6 o'clock, and every Saturday from half past 5 o'clock, P. M., till half past 8, except when a public holiday shall occur on one of these days, and during such time as the Library shall be closed for the examination of the books.

12. No person shall be allowed more than one volume at any one time, and no book shall be kept by the person borrowing it more than fourteen days. Any book, however, may be renewed once to the same person, but not more than once, until it shall have been returned to the Library, and shall have remained there at least one full Library day.

13. If any person shall refuse, or unreasonably neglect to pay any sum due for the detention, loss, or injury of any book, his right to take books from the Library shall be suspended until he complies with the requirements.

INTRODUCTION.

THE WOBURN LIBRARY owes its existence to the enlightened liberality of a citizen of the Town. A brief history of its origin seems peculiarly appropriate in this place, and cannot fail to interest all who desire to enjoy the advantages for intellectual improvement now brought within their reach.

At a meeting of the Town in November, 1854, Mr. J. B. Winn informally introduced the subject of a Free Public Library, and offered to give for that object, the money he had received as a member of the Constitutional Convention of 1853, provided the Town would appropriate a like sum for the same purpose. By an informal vote the offer was accepted, and the thanks of the Town presented to Mr. Winn.

At the Annual Meeting of the Town in March, 1855, the subject of a Town Library came up under an article inserted in the Warrant for that purpose. The Town voted to accept the offer of Mr. Winn, and appropriated the sum of Three Hundred Dollars to be added to his donation, to be expended in the purchase of books for a Public Library. In addition to this, the Selectmen were authorized to draw their order on the Treasury for such further sum as might be necessary to defray the expenses incident to procuring and fitting up a room with suitable conveniencies for the proposed Library. They also chose a Committee of seven persons, and gave them full powers to provide and furnish a room, to purchase books, appoint a Librarian, and establish all necessary By-Laws, Rules and Regulations, to be observed by those using the Library. This Committee consisted of J. B. Winn, Albert H. Nelson, Joshua P. Converse, Truman Rickard, Lewis L. Whitney, Josiah Linscott, and Albert Thompson.

The Committee performed the labors thus entrusted to them, and opened the Library to the public in July, 1856. At that time the Library contained seventeen hundred volumes. It now contains thirty-two hundred.

The interest manifested in the Library by the citizens of the Town, places its success beyond a doubt. Well may Woburn be proud to see, superadded to her many facilities for high moral and intellectual culture, a Free Library, open alike to every citizen—the poor as well as the rich—resting upon that firm foundation,—the pride and affection of the people. Let its volumes be used as they deserve, and as we confidently predict that they will be used, and we shall see, ere long, a higher, a more refined intellectual character pervading and influencing all classes of our citizens;—while the name of him who originated, and has helped carry forward to its successful completion, this noble undertaking, like that of every real public benefactor, shall gather new lustre with each revolving year, and will be held in grateful remembrance by each succeeding generation, as they continue to draw from this accumulation of the wisdom of all ages, the choicest treasures of Science, Literature and Religion.

BY-LAWS

OF THE

Woburn Library.

EVERY citizen of Woburn, resident therein, and of the age of twenty-one years, capable of contracting in law, shall have the right to take books from the Library, on signing these By-Laws, and conforming thereto.

Each member of the family of said citizen, above the age of fourteen years, shall also have said right, conformably to these Rules and By-Laws, if the father, brother, guardian, or other friend of said person, shall, by signing these By-Laws, become responsible for said peason.

Any resident of Woburn, not a legal citizen of said town, may have the use of the Library, by depositing with the Librarian the value of the book he takes, or by procuring some citizen of said town, satisfactory to the Library Committee, to become responsible for his observance of these By-Laws. And in case a deposit of money is made with the Librarian, said deposit shall be returned by the Librarian, whenever said person ceases to use the Library, first deducting all that may be due for fines, assessments and damages.

The Library Committee may grant the use of the Library to any one, under special circumstances, when they shall see fit.

Every person authorised to use the Library, may take therefrom one book at a time, and keep the same not exceeding two weeks.

Persons detaining any volume longer than these regulations permit, shall be fined three cents for every day the same shall be so detained, the Librarian being charged with the collection of these and other dues to the Library. And in case any such person shall retain said book more than four weeks, the privilege of himself, or herself, and of any one for whom he or she is responsible, of using said Library, shall cease, until said book is returned and all fines are paid.

Any person damaging a book, shall pay therefor such sum as shall be assessed by the Librarian, or, in case of disagreement, by the Library Committee; and until such payment is made, his or her privilege, and the privilege of all for whom he or she is responsible, shall cease.

If a book be lost, defaced, or injured, it shall be replaced, or its value shall be paid in money. If it be one of a set, the person liable shall either pay for the whole set, and receive the odd volumes, or he shall pay the cost of replacing the volume which is lost, defaced, or injured, and the right of him or her, and of those for whom he or she is responsible, to use the Library, shall cease, until such payment is made. Any person keeping a book from the Library more than six weeks, may, at the election of the Committee, be deemed to have lost the same, and shall be responsible for the value thereof, as if the same were actually lost.

It shall be the duty of the Librarian to keep charge of the Library, to see that the books are properly charged to the person receiving the same, before delivery; to assess all damages done to the books, and collect the same; to keep an account of, and collect all fines and penalties for lost books; to see that the books are kept properly covered, numbered and labelled, and deliver to each person, entitled to the use of the Library, a proper Card for the obtaining and exchange of books. The Librarian shall also have the right to dismiss and eject from the Library Room, any and all persons guilty of misconduct, or improper behaviour therein. And, generally, to do and perform, under the direction of the Library Committee, all duties ordinarily pertaining to that office. It shall also be the duty of the Librarian to make an annual examination of the Library during the week beginning with the fourth Monday in July, and report the same to the Committee.

All books shall be returned to the Library for the annual examination before the fourth Monday in July, and the Library will be closed during the succeeding three weeks.

The Library will be kept open every Monday from six to nine o'clock, P. M.; every Wednesday from two to six o'clock, P. M.; every Saturday from two to five and from six to nine o'clock, P.M.,—except when a legal holiday shall occur on one of these days, and during such time as the Library shall be closed for the examination of the books.

No person shall be allowed more than one volume at any one time, and no book shall be kept by the person borrowing it, more than fourteen days. Any book, however, may be renewed once to the same person, but not more than once, until it shall have been returned to the Library, and shall have remained there at least one full Library day.

Periodicals can be kept out but one week.

In borrowing and returning books, the card furnished for that purpose must be used. Any person losing his card can replace the same on payment of five cents to the Librarian.

Catalogues can be purchased of the Librarian at a cost fixed by the Library Committee.

CATALOGUE

1867.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

OF THE

WINCHENDON PUBLIC LIBRARY.

ART. 1st. The officers of the Board of Trustees shall consist of a Chairman, Secretary and Treasurer, to be chosen by ballot at the first meeting of the Board, or at any subsequent meeting if a choice is not then made. Standing Committees may be appointed for the discharge of special duties assigned them by the Board.

ART. 2d. The duties of the Chairman and Secretary shall be those usually appertaining to such offices, and in the absence of either of them a substitute may be chosen temporarily.

ART. 3d. The Treasurer shall hold all funds in the possession of the Trustees, and shall pay bills only upon the orders of the Board.

ART. 4th. Regular meetings of the Trustees shall be holden on the last Saturday of July and January.

ART. 5th. Special meetings shall be called at the request of any one of the Trustees, and the Secretary shall notify each member of all meetings, the day before.

ART. 6th. A Record shall be kept of all donations and mention be made of them in the Annual Report to the Town.

ART. 7th. A Librarian shall be appointed who shall hold his office during the pleasure of the Trustees, and shall receive such compensation as the Board may allow.

ART. 8th. The Librarian shall have the custody of all property in the Library Rooms, and shall be accountable to the Trustees for the same. It shall be his duty, under the direction of the Trustees, to prepare Catalogues, keep the books in order for circulation, make all necessary records and do all things which may be necessary for the preservation of the property and the convenience of visitors and takers of books.

ART. 9th. Any of the foregoing articles, or any of the Library Regulations may be amended at any meeting, if a majority of the Trustees vote for such amendment, if notice of the amendment proposed is given in the call for the meeting.

ART. 10th. A majority of the Board shall constitute a quorum.

LIBRARY RULES.

SEC. 1st. The Library shall be open for the delivery of books on Wednesday and Saturday afternoon from two to five o'clock, and on Saturday evening from seven to nine o'clock, except when one of such days shall be observed as a customary holiday,

SEC. 2d. Books may be taken from the Library by all permanently resident adults. A delivery upon the order of such person shall be considered a delivery to him or her in person.

SEC. 3d. All persons of the age of twelve and upwards, either permanently or temporarily resident in the town, may be allowed the rights of permanently resident adults, as takers of books, by filing with the Librarian, a bond, signed by some responsible, permanently resident adult, by which the signer shall become, to the same extent, responsible for such person as he would be for himself. A deposit to the full value of the volume called for, or of the set to which it belongs, may take the place of such bond.

SEC. 4th. All persons shall, before receiving books from the Library, enter into an obligation in writing, or furnish one from another party, as provided in section third, that they will observe all the Rules and Regulations instituted for the government and safety of the Library, which obligation shall recognise a pecuniary liability on the part of such person to the town of Winchendon for all fines, forfeitures, loss or damage.

SEC. 5th. No person shall be allowed to take a book from the Library, who appears by the records to be accountable for a book taken, or for a fine or forfeiture imposed.

SEC. 6th. Persons entitled to take books from the Library, may receive from the Librarian a printed card having upon it the name of the applicant and the number of his or her page in the Ledger. The only mode of obtaining a book will be by the presentation of this card, upon which has been written the number or numbers of the books wanted, in the order of their preference, and the first book indicated which may be in, will be delivered. Such card shall be considered an order from the person to whom it belongs, when presented by any other person.

SEC. 7th. But one volume can be taken at one time, and can be used in the family of the taker only.

SEC. 8th. All books may be retained two weeks.

SEC. 9th. Books when not properly used, may be witheld from any person at the discretion of the Librarian.

SEC. 10th. Any person may renew a book taken, once, but not more than once, until it shall have been returned to the Library, and shall have remained there at least one full Library day, and no other preference shall be allowed in any case, but applicants shall be served in the order of their application.

SEC. 11th. Books will not be acknowledged as returned, unless delivered to the Librarian.

SEC. 12th. The Trustees may order any rare or valuable book to be retained in the rooms, and may shorten the time during which any book may be kept out.

SEC. 13th. The fines for retaining books beyond the period allowed, shall be as follows, viz: four cents for each Library day, and for books damaged or lost, the actual loss sustained.

SEC. 14th. It shall be the duty of the Librarian, to send for all books held double the time prescribed, and if they are not then delivered they shall be considered as lost, and the holder shall pay the expense of sending for the same.

SEC. 15th. Blank forms for orders &c., will be furnished free, on application to the Librarian.

SEC. 16th. All books must be returned to the Library on or before the last Saturday in January, under penalty of a fine of fifty cents. The Library will be closed after this date sufficiently long for the purpose of an annual examination.
